

Borough of Andover

BYELAWS

made under Section 164 of the Public Health Act, 1875, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover acting by the Council, with respect to the Pleasure Grounds within the Borough.

BYELAWS

made under Section 164 of the Public Health Act, 1875, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover acting by the Council with respect to the PLEASURE GROUND known as Beech Hurst Park, Andover, in the County of Southampton.

1. Throughout these byelaws the expression "the Council" means the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover acting by the Council and the expression "the pleasure ground" means the pleasure ground, known as Beech Hurst Park, Andover, aforesaid.

2. An act necessary to the proper execution of his duty in the pleasure ground by an officer of the Council, or by any person or servant of any person employed by the Council, shall not be deemed an offence against these byelaws.

3. A person shall not in the pleasure ground

- (i) carelessly or negligently deface, injure, or destroy any wall or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or any building, barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any erection or ornament;
- (ii) wilfully, carelessly, or negligently soil or defile any wall or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or any building, barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any erection or ornament;
- (iii) climb any wall or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or any tree, or any barrier, railing, post, or other erection;
- (iv) wilfully, carelessly, or negligently remove or displace any barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any part of any erection or ornament, or any implement provided for use in the laying out or maintenance of the pleasure ground.

4. A person shall not affix any bill, placard, or notice, to or upon any wall or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or to, or upon any tree, or plant, or to or upon any part of any building, barrier, or railing, or ~~any~~ any seat, or ~~any~~ any other erection or ornament in the pleasure ground.

5. A person shall not in the pleasure ground, walk, run, stand, sit or lie upon

- (i) any grass, turf, or other place where adequate notice to keep off such grass, turf, or other place shall be placed: Provided that such notice shall not apply to more than one-fifth of the area of the pleasure ground;

- (ii) any flower bed, shrub, or plant, or any ground in course of preparation as a flower bed, or for the growth of any tree, shrub or plant.

6. A person shall not cause or suffer any dog belonging to him or in his charge

- ~~(i)~~ to enter or remain in the pleasure ground, unless such dog be and continue to be under proper control, and be effectually restrained from causing annoyance to any person, and from worrying or disturbing any animal;

- ~~(ii) to enter any such part of the pleasure ground as may be enclosed by the Council and described on a notice board affixed or set up in some conspicuous position in the pleasure ground as being an enclosure where dogs are prohibited.~~

7. A person shall not in the pleasure ground

- (i) except as hereinafter provided erect any post, rail, fence, pole, tent, booth, stand, building, or other structure: Provided that this prohibition shall not apply where upon an application to the Council they grant permission to erect any post, rail, fence, pole, tent, booth, stand, building, or other structure, upon such occasion and for such purpose as are specified in the application;
- (ii) sell, or offer or expose for sale, or let to hire, or offer or expose for letting to hire, any commodity or article, unless, in pursuance of an agreement with the Council, or otherwise in the exercise of any lawful right or privilege, he is authorised to sell or let to hire in the pleasure ground such commodity or article.

8. A person shall not wilfully, carelessly or negligently throw or discharge in the pleasure ground any missile to the damage or danger of any person, or wilfully obstruct, disturb, interrupt, or annoy any other person in the proper use of the pleasure ground, or wilfully obstruct, disturb, or interrupt any officer of the Council in the proper execution of his duty, or any person or servant of any person employed by the Council in the proper execution of any work in connection with the laying out or maintenance of the pleasure ground.

9. (i) A person shall not bring or cause to be brought into the pleasure ground any barrow, truck, machine or vehicle other than :

- (a) a wheeled bicycle, tricycle, or other similar machine;
- (b) a wheel chair, perambulator, or chaise drawn or propelled by hand and used solely for the conveyance of a child or children or an invalid.

(ii) A person shall not ride any bicycle, tricycle, or other similar machine in any part of the pleasure ground.

10. A person shall not fly any power-driven model aircraft, that is to say, any model aircraft driven by the combustion of petrol-vapour or other combustible substances, in the pleasure ground.

11. A person shall not to the annoyance of any person play any musical instrument in any part of the pleasure ground.

12. A person shall not enter or quit the pleasure ground otherwise than through some one of the authorised means of entrance to or exit therefrom.

13. A person shall not bring or cause to be brought into the pleasure ground any cattle, sheep, goats, or pigs, or any beast of draught or burden, unless in pursuance of an agreement with the Council, or in the exercise of any lawful right or privilege, he is authorised to do so.

14. Where the Council, by means of a notice board affixed or set up in some conspicuous position in the pleasure ground, prohibit the playing by persons other than children not exceeding the age of ten years of any game involving the use of a ball, such persons shall not play any such game within the pleasure ground.

15. Every person who shall offend against any of these byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Two Pounds.

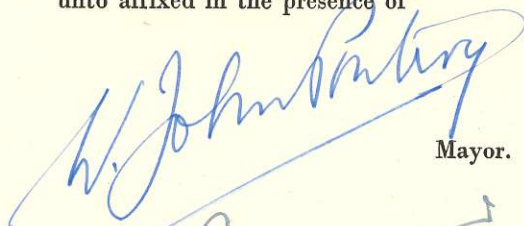

16. Every person who shall infringe any byelaw for the regulation of the pleasure ground may be removed therefrom by any officer of the Council, or by any constable, in any one of the several cases hereinafter specified, that is to say—

(i) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and the name and residence of the person infringing the byelaw are unknown to and cannot be readily ascertained by such officer or constable ;

(ii) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and, from the nature of such infraction, or from any other fact of which such officer or constable may have knowledge, or of which he may be credibly informed, there may be reasonable ground for belief that the continuance in the pleasure ground of the person infringing the byelaw may result in another infraction of a byelaw, or that the removal of such person from the pleasure ground is otherwise necessary as a security for the proper use and regulation thereof.

BYELAWS

made under Section 164 of the Public Health Act, 1875, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover acting by the Council with respect to the RECREATION GROUNDS known respectively as the King George Playing Field and the Daisy Dell Playing Field both situate at Andover, in the County of Southampton.

1. Throughout these byelaws the expression "the Council" means the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover acting by the Council and the expression "the ground" means either of the recreation grounds known respectively as the King George Playing Field and the Daisy Dell Playing Field, both situate at Andover aforesaid (except where otherwise indicated).
2. An act necessary to the proper execution of his duty on the ground by an officer of the Council, or by any person or servant of any person employed by the Council, shall not be deemed an offence against these byelaws.
3. A person shall not
  - (a) carelessly or negligently deface, injure, or destroy any wall or fence in or enclosing the ground, or any building, barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any erection or ornament on the ground;
  - (b) wilfully, carelessly or negligently soil or defile any wall or fence in or enclosing the ground, or any building, barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any erection or ornament on the ground.
4. A person shall not except in pursuance of a lawful agreement with the Council, or otherwise in the exercise of any lawful right or privilege, bring or cause to be brought on to the ground
  - (a) any beast of draught or burden or any cattle, sheep, goats, or pigs;
  - (b) any barrow, truck, machine, or vehicle unless intended for the conveyance of a child or children or an invalid.
5. A person shall not affix any bill, placard, or notice to or upon any tree, or to or upon any part of any building, seat, or other erection on the ground.
6. A person shall not on the ground remove, cut, or displace any gravel, soil, turf, or plant.

7. Where the Council set apart any such part of the ground as may be fixed by the Council, and may be described in a notice board affixed or set up in some conspicuous position on the ground, for the purpose of any game specified on the notice board, which, by reason of the rules or manner of playing, or for the prevention of damage, danger or discomfort to any person on the ground, may necessitate the exclusive use by the player or players of any space on such part of the ground—a person shall not in any space elsewhere on the ground play or take part in any game so specified in such a manner as to exclude persons not playing or taking part in the game from the use of such space.

8. A person shall not except with the consent of the Council erect any post, rail, fence, pole, tent, booth, stand, building, or other structure on the ground.

9. A person shall not on the ground

(a) beat, shake, sweep, brush, or cleanse any carpet, drugget, rug, or mat, or any other fabric retaining dust or dirt ;

(b) hang, spread, or deposit any linen or other fabric for drying or bleaching.

10. A person shall not on the ground wilfully obstruct, disturb, interrupt, or annoy any person in the proper use of the ground, or wilfully obstruct, disturb, or interrupt any officer of the Council in the proper execution of his duty, or any person or servant of any person employed by the Council in the proper execution of his duty.

11. A person shall not fly any power-driven model aircraft, that is to say, any model aircraft driven by the combustion of petrol-vapour or other combustible substances, in the ground known as the Daisy Dell Playing Field.

12. Every person who shall offend against any of the foregoing byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Two Pounds.

13. Every person who shall infringe any byelaw for the regulation of the ground may be removed therefrom by any officer of the Council, or by any constable, in any one of the several cases hereinafter specified : that is to say—

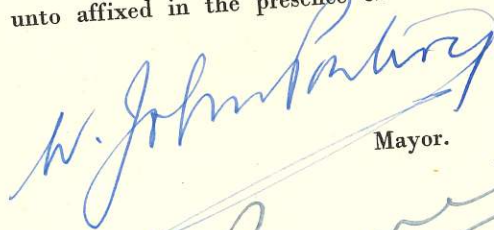

(i) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and the name and residence of the person infringing the byelaw are unknown to and cannot be readily ascertained by such officer or constable ;

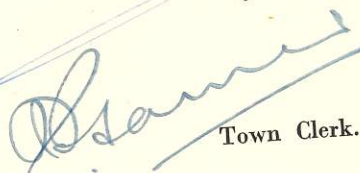

- (ii) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and, from the nature of such infraction, or from any other fact of which such officer or constable may have knowledge, or of which he may be credibly informed, there may be reasonable ground for belief that the continuance on the ground of the person infringing the byelaw may result in another infraction of a byelaw, or that the removal of such person from the ground is otherwise necessary as a security for the proper use and regulation thereof.

BYELAWS

made under Section 164 of the Public Health Act, 1875, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover acting by the Council with respect to the PLEASURE GROUND known as the Vigo Road Recreation Ground, Andover, in the County of Southampton.

1. Throughout these byelaws the expression "the Council" means the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover acting by the Council and the expression "the pleasure ground" means the pleasure ground known as the Vigo Road Recreation Ground, Andover, aforesaid.

2. An act necessary to the proper execution of his duty in the pleasure ground by an officer of the Council, or by any person or servant of any person employed by the Council, shall not be deemed an offence against these byelaws.

By W. J. B.

3. A person shall not in the pleasure ground

- (i) carelessly or negligently deface, injure, or destroy any wall, or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or any building, barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any erection or ornament ;
- (ii) wilfully, carelessly, or negligently soil or defile any wall or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or any building, barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any erection or ornament ;
- (iii) climb any wall or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or any tree, or any barrier, railing, post or other erection ;
- (iv) wilfully, carelessly or negligently remove or displace any barrier, railing, post, or seat, or any part of any erection or ornament, or any implement provided for use in the laying out or maintenance of the pleasure ground.

4. A person shall not affix any bill, placard, or notice, to or upon any wall or fence in or enclosing the pleasure ground, or to or upon any tree, or plant, or to or upon any part of any building, barrier or railing, or of any seat, or of any other erection or ornament in the pleasure ground.

5. A person shall not in the pleasure ground walk, run, stand, sit or lie upon

- (i) any grass, turf, or other place where adequate notice to keep off such grass, turf, or other place shall be placed :

Provided that such notice shall not apply to more than one-fifth of the area of the pleasure ground ;

- (ii) any flower bed, shrub, or plant, or any ground in course of preparation as a flower bed, or for the growth of any tree, shrub or plant.

6. A person shall not cause or suffer any dog belonging to him or in his charge to enter or remain in the pleasure ground, unless such dog be and continue to be under proper control, and be effectually restrained from causing annoyance to any person, and from worrying or disturbing any animal.

7. A person shall not in the pleasure ground

- (i) except as hereinafter provided erect any post, rail, fence, pole, tent, booth, stand, building, or other structure :

Provided that this prohibition shall not apply where upon an application to the Council they grant permission to erect any post, rail, fence, pole, tent, booth, stand, building or other structure, upon such occasion and for such purpose as are specified in the application ;

- (ii) sell, or offer or expose for sale, or let to hire, or offer or expose for letting to hire, any commodity or article, unless, in pursuance of an agreement with the Council, or otherwise in exercise of any lawful right or privilege, he is authorised to sell or let to hire in the pleasure ground such commodity or article.

8. A person shall not wilfully, carelessly or negligently throw or discharge in the pleasure ground any missile to the damage or danger of any person, or wilfully obstruct, disturb, interrupt, or annoy any other person in the proper use of the pleasure ground, or wilfully obstruct, disturb, or interrupt any officer of the Council in the proper <sup>ex</sup>ecution of his duty, or any person or servant of any person employed by the Council in the proper execution of any work in connection with the laying out or maintenance of the pleasure ground.

9. Where the Council set apart any such part of the pleasure ground as may be fixed by the Council, and described in a notice board affixed or set up in some conspicuous position in the pleasure ground, for the purpose of any game specified on the notice board, which, by reason of the rules or manner of playing, or for the prevention of damage, danger or discomfort to any person in the pleasure ground may necessitate, at any time during the continuance of the game, the exclusive use by the player or players of any space in such part of the pleasure ground—a person shall not in any space elsewhere in the pleasure ground play or take part in any game so specified in such a manner as to exclude persons not playing or taking part in the game from the use of such space.

10. A person who has attained the age of fifteen years shall not use any swing or other apparatus or equipment in the pleasure ground which by a notice affixed or set up near thereto shall be set apart for the exclusive use of persons under the age of fifteen years.

11. A person shall not preach or lecture, or take part in a public discussion on any subject, or in any meeting for the purpose of making any religious or political demonstration, or of holding a religious service in the pleasure ground.

Provided that this Byelaw shall not apply to interdenominational religious services on occasions of public rejoicing, thanksgiving, remembrance or calamity.

12. (i) A person shall not bring or cause to be brought into the pleasure ground any barrow, truck, machine, or vehicle other than :

(a) A wheeled bicycle, tricycle or other similar machine ;

(b) A wheel chair, perambulator or chaise drawn or propelled by hand and used solely for the conveyance of a child or children or an invalid.

(ii) A person shall not ride any bicycle, tricycle or other similar machine in any part of the pleasure ground.

13. A person shall not fly any power-driven model aircraft, that is to say, any model aircraft driven by the combustion of petrol-vapour or other combustible substances, in the pleasure ground.

14. A person shall not to the annoyance of any person play any musical instrument in any part of the pleasure ground.

15. A person shall not enter or quit the pleasure ground otherwise than through some one of the authorised means of entrance to or exit therefrom.

16. A person shall not bring or cause or suffer to be brought into the pleasure ground any cattle, sheep, goats, or pigs, or any beast of draught or burden, unless in pursuance of any agreement with the Council, or otherwise in exercise of any lawful right or privilege, he is authorised to do so.

17. Every person who shall offend against any of these byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Two Pounds.

18. Every person who shall infringe any byelaw for the regulation of the pleasure ground may be removed therefrom by any officer of the Council, or by any constable, in any one of the several cases hereinafter specified : that is to say—

- (i) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and the name and residence of the person infringing the byelaw are unknown to and cannot be readily ascertained by such officer or constable ;
- (ii) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and, from the nature of such infraction, or from any other fact of which such officer or constable may have knowledge, or of which he may be credibly informed, there may be reasonable ground for belief that the continuance in the pleasure ground of the person infringing the byelaw may result in another infraction of a byelaw, or that the removal of such person from the pleasure ground is otherwise necessary as a security for the proper use and regulation thereof.
